THE THEATERS

The Bijou program today includes a four-part Famous drama entitled "Clothes." Miss Charlotte Ives and House Peters are the leading actors. This play is one of Grace George's famous successes, a celebrated society drama by Avery Hopwood and Channing Pollock. An extra interesting Hearst-Selig Pictorial News film is shown and in the afternoon Richard Travers and Irene Westfield will be seen on the screen in a two-part Essanay play, "When the Lightning Struck," an extremely exciting drama founded on jealousy.

Marguerite Courtot, the dainty seventeen-year-old Miss whose work in motion pictures is a delight to photography patrons, will portray the title role in a forthcoming Kalem production, "The Barefoot Boy." Since the role enabled her to give rein to her tomboyish instincts, Miss Courtot gloried in it. For days she scorned the use of footgear, while feminine attire was discarded for a pair of overalls. "It's lots more fun to go barefooted, wear overalls and be a boy," declared the Kalem leading lady.

"Fantomas," which is said to be the greatest serial detective play ever issued, is showing today at the Orpheum theater. You have all seen the first three series of this play and now the fourth is offered for your approval. It is entitled "Fantomas, the Crook Detective," in four powerful and awe inspiring parts, featuring a great cast of players including Renee Carl, James Brenon and Victor Navarre, the mysterious Fantomas. "The Scrub Lady" a Thanhouse special and "The Last Drink of Whiskey" a comic Komic comedy are included in the bill. Tomorrow is Mutual Girl day. Margaret is still missing and her aunt offers a reward of $5,000 for her return. Things are getting very lively around Our Mutual Girl as you know Irvin S. Cobb, the world's greatest writer, is writing the story, and as usual is making things interesting.

Wilton Lackaye delivered an address at the University of Georgetown on the celebration of its one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary. On this occasion, the university conferred on Mr. Lackaye the degree of Bachelor of Arts, a great honor to the stage in Mr. Lackaye's person.

"Panther," a real Sioux Indian, is the big vaudeville feature on the bill at the Odeon for the last half of the week. "Panther" is without a doubt a splendid Indian novelty act having genuine Indian costumes, singing, dancing and a stirring lecture on the American people. Panther is an anti-suffragist and holds that the man should be king and the woman queen of the home. There will be an entire change of costumes every night. The second act on the bill is also a headliner. It is by the Three Darlings and is a comedy musical act in which novel instruments are used.

LICENSE

Laws of City are Changed at a Meeting Held by the City Council.

At a meeting of the city council Tuesday evening the license ordinance of the city was amended as follows:

Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Clarksburg:

That section 15 of an ordinance of the City of Clarksburg relating to licenses be amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

On every license to keep a hotel or tavern, eating house or restaurant, three per centum per annum upon the yearly rental value of the premises occupied for that purpose, estimate according to section 9, chapter 32 of the Code of West Virginia.

On every license to carry on the business of druggist, two ($2) dollars.

On every license to keep a bowling alley for public use or resort where any charge is made for the use of the same, forty ($40) dollars, but if more than one be kept in one house forty dollars for the first one and fifteen ($15) for each additional one.

On every license to keep a billiard table or pool table, or table of like kind, for public use or resort, where any charge is made for the use of the same, fifty ($50) dollars; if more than one of such tables be kept in the same house, by the same person, fifty dollars for the first one, and twenty ($20) dollars for each additional one.

On every license to carry on the business of junk dealer, twenty-five ($25) dollars, and on every agent, solicitor, canvasser or salesman, appointed by any junk dealer for the purpose of buying junk, ten ($10) dollars.

On every license to operate a roller coaster, merry-go-round, scenic railway or like device; for one week ten ($10) dollars; for four months thirty ($30) dollars; for six months, fifty ($50) dollars, and for one year one hundred ($100) dollars.

On every license to practice the business of pawn broker, $100.

On every license to act as auctioneer, ten ($10) dollars, and no reduction shall be made whether the license be for a whole year or less.

On every license to sell or barter patent rights, ten ($10) dollars; on every license to carry on the business of collecting agency, ten ($10) dollars.

On every license to keep a shooting gallery for public use or resort, twenty-five ($25) dollars.

On every license for theatrical performance or moving picture show, fifty dollars per week, and no such license shall be issued for any fraction of a week. Provided that a theater, opera house, moving picture show or other permanent public show shall have a license to exhibit for one year for forty ($40) dollars; and provided further that the City of Clarksburg reserves to itself the right at any time upon reasonable notice to the holder of any theater license or license for any permanent public show, to revoke such license for good cause, and especially when in the judgment of a majority of the council the play or picture to be exhibited is not a proper one to be exhibited or shown before the public.

On every license to carry on the business of money broker or private banker, twenty-five ($25) dollars.

On every license to maintain a penny slot machine or other automatic device which is not a gambling device under section 1 of chapter 151 of the Code, five ($5) dollars for each machine or device.

On every license to operate a wagon on the streets of the City of Clarksburg for the sale of pop corn, peanuts, candies, etc., seventy-five ($75) dollars.

On every license to practice the business of a stock broker, merchant broker, or other broker, other than that of a pawn broker, by buying or selling for others, stock, securities, merchandise or other property, for commission or reward, fifty ($50) dollars.

On every license to practice the business of real estate agent, or real estate broker, fifty ($50) dollars.

All license taxes, as herein provided, shall be paid to the city collector, at his office, before the license holder shall proceed to exercise his rights as licensee under any such license.

This ordinance shall take effect upon its passage.

All ordinances, and parts of ordinances, inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

E. W. Laubenstein resigned as city engineer and Boyd Fleming was appointed to the place.

Dr. C. M. Kessler was chosen city health officer.

Ernest Hill was named as janitor. The matter of a right of way of the traction company over the Sixth

CRACK ON CRANIUM

And Fine of $6.60 is the Cost of Interfering with an Officer.

George Cunningham got a crack on the cranium and paid $6.60 for interfering with Officer Gill last night when the officer was bringing a drunk to the police station. Cunningham apparently had been imbibing quite freely and when he attempted to halt the officer, he got a blow over the head from the officer's club and was then taken into the procession, which ended at police headquarters. In police court this morning Mayor Will H. Cole fined him $6.60. Cunningham probably knows by this time that it doesn't pay to interfere with officers.
